Continuing on my recent conversation with Arlene Goldstein, the vice president of trend merchandising and fashion direction at Belk, here's part two of my five-part series on what to look for this spring in all fashionable hotness.

According to Goldstein, the color for spring is WHITE. It's a simple, classy look for men and women.

But if your clumsiness makes you avoid wearing white, you can check out the PANTONE fashion color report for spring 2009 by clicking here. Prominent colors are fuchsia red, slate gray, palace blue and lavender.
