

PointWorthy

You've sent your RSVP, now the question is what to wear? Check out these holiday fashions sure to dazzle the crowd.

According to Arlene Goldstein, vice president of Trend Merchandising and Fashion Direction for Belk, fancy fabrics and luscious jeweled hues are just the ticket for holiday dress. That's why we love this Alex Evenings silk crinkle blouse in rich olive green ($128). Need something timeless yet fresh? Spice up the little black dress by choosing one with a trendy shape, like this one by JS Collection ($148). With its black velvet bodice and mesh bubble skirt, you'll be sophisticated and flirty. Find these hot holiday items and more at the new Belk at Northpoint Mall in Alpharetta.

Whether your holiday party calls for classic black or a festive red number, pair that perfect outfit with silver and clear accessories by Atlanta-based Jamie Diane Designs. The simple pieces work to add a touch of pizzazz to your holiday attire, but are versatile enough to complement your casual clothing, too. Find the sterling silver hammered chain necklace with clear crystal chandelier teardrop pendant ($155) and matching cocktail ring ($45) at Liv's Boutique in Atlanta.

Why limit your accessories to silver or gold when both are great for that holiday sparkle? Mickey Lynn Designs handmade silver hammered bangles ($150 each) are accented with 14-carat gold and dotted with various gemstones that are just right for an extra hint of seasonal glitz. Gemstones include peridot, labradorite, smoky topaz and green amethyst; bangles are available at Buckhead's Pink Lemonade or online at www.mickeylynnndesigns.com.
